

Welcome To

THE ACTIVATION INNER CIRCLE

Introduction

Well hello beautiful lady and welcome inside The Activation Inner Circle! I'm so excited to have you part of my community of brilliant and bold brave women who are on a mission to becoming the best version of themselves... ready to become fierce, fearless, and financially free!

If you haven't already done so, make sure you take a look at your 30-Day Gameplan and Getting Started Card inside the Membership Portal...

Even if you are a student of my work and I have trained you before, be sure to read this entire welcome packet so that you're in the know.

This is going to be a pretty incredible adventure and I'm so glad that you get to join me and all the women in this like-minded community who are ready to stop living mediocre lives and start their journey to a life of true purpose.

I'm going to be revealing some of the most advanced, most successful, and most unique strategies that I've mastered as a women entrepreneur to live life on my terms and build my own businesses.

My story...

Let me tell you a little bit about me before we embark upon this journey together. It's really important for your success in this program, that you know and you trust me.

I have been an entrepreneur for over 10 years now, and in that time I have run 5 businesses. I've run 4 businesses in service based industries – a wedding planning and event production company, an etiquette and civility company, a scholarship pageant, and a business consulting agency. The other business was a store front brick and mortar print and design center.

I received my experience in digital marketing after being trained by the best in the business to include, Tony Robbins, Daymond John, and Marie Forleo. I was also the Executive Administrator for several churches, helping with exponential growth and overall church strategy. This was an incredible learning curve for me and gave me the opportunity to test my skill sets and all the things that I was discovering in the administrative, business, and digital marketing world. I managed big budgets and I got to learn and grow in the successes that were achieved.

I've now been able to apply that skill, experience and knowledge to all of my own businesses and all of our programs, including The ME School Academy.

Now, The ME School Academy has been a project that has been on my bucket list for quite some time...

A program that thrives on community and collaboration, with a mastermind of women who want to become influential leaders in their own right.

Women who can come alongside each other to help avoid all the many mistakes in their lives...

And to provide the personal support and accountability that can support this group of women along the way. When I say accountability and motivation, that truly is the key to this program.

As you know, the philosophy I use to build all of our programs, focuses around the desire that “anything is possible”.

It's all about believing in yourself and taking BIG action.

So, if you're in The Activation Inner Circle so that you can have someone to always give you validation, or looking for someone to blindly encourage you in everything you do, you're in the wrong place. During our journey in this program, I'm going to keep you accountable.

I'm going to follow up and make sure that your 'Activation Kits' are completed on a monthly basis, and I'm going to tell you when I feel like you're going in the wrong direction. I'm going to give you real talk when you need it, because I truly believe that's the only way to honor you, your time, and future.

If you're up for that, this is going to be one heck of a ride!

Along with the accountability and the real talk, I also want you to know that you have me in your corner. I'm incredibly aware of how tough it is to sometimes change who you've always been to find who you were meant to be.

I'm aware of how tough you need to be. I'm aware that sometimes you feel like quitting and not sure how to move the needle forward, but I just want to tell you a little bit about what's changed in my life and the things that I want for you too...

Before becoming a female entrepreneur, I worked in corporate America and had a job that I didn't love.

I would be wake up early every morning, get into my car outside our rented apartment, sit in traffic, and then go into a cold office in a job that I hated.

Half the time I was working on other projects I had going on in my own little world that had absolutely nothing to do with my 9 to 5.

Even after graduating from one of the top schools in my state, I was getting paid an average wage, living paycheck to paycheck, and couldn't really figure out how I was going to create the lifestyle that I wanted to create with my husband...

It honestly never dawned on me what was possible, because I was stuck in the rat race and doing the same traditional thing I had always seen other people around me do... work, go home, go to church, go to restaurants, hang out... wake up and do it all over again...

So one day I sat on the top of my steps wondering which direction my life was heading in...

Maybe an angel visited me that day, but I then decided to embark upon the journey of becoming an entrepreneur and started to build my first business...

Well, the story just kind of got worse from there.

I didn't sleep...

I didn't eat...

My phone rang non-stop...

I lost my social life...

I was wasting money...

I was building a business and I kept having successes here and there, but nothing that was lasting and nothing that was scalable. It was as though I had traded an unfulfilling life for an even more stressful one. I was solving everyone else's problems and I was only getting older and more used and abused.

No one would ever know, but I hit rock bottom multiple times... I burned out, but every single time I got back up, dusted myself off, and moved forward.

Fast forward to today...

I now wake up in the morning and get to go into my gorgeous office that I took time to design...

I get to do what I love every single day and I get to chill with the kids, hang out with my husband, take walks, read, sit on my porch, plant beautiful flowers in my garden, and enjoy much needed quality time.

My kids are in the number one private school in the county and get to participate in the coolest activities that will set them apart from all of the other kids I ever knew when I was growing up.

I get to travel the world with my husband, my kids, and even my mom when I want.

I answer my phone when I want...

I have a personal chef; I have a maid, and a virtual assistant who help me sort out my day.

I haven't had to worry about money for quite some time. I've honestly never seen so much money in my bank account, even after years slaving behind a desk and having a Master's degree in Business Administration.

I drive a top of the line Mercedes...

And the best thing of all is...

I WANT you to have this in your own life...

Can you imagine how much your life would change?!?

For me, that's probably the most exciting part of all of this.

But most importantly, I get to do something that I love every day and serve a community of dedicated, simply fabulous women...

I get to impact the lives of tens of thousands of entrepreneurs from all over the world.

I get to open my email or see a note on Facebook about how I've changed someone's life...

The testimonials are out of this world...

I get to see lives transformed...

I get to see bank accounts quadruple...

I get to see women's faces light up when they realize what they're capable of with a little push and guidance...

I get to see confidences soar...

I get to see marriages rejuvenated...

I get to see the ripple effect of their lives and businesses to each person connected to them...

I get to see babies born by women who never thought they could conceive (one of those what doctors say is impossible, God says is possible sort of things)...

And I get to enjoy the messages of husbands and loved ones thankful that the gal connected to them has finally stepped into her legacy.

I am so thankful to God for everything He's put me through because now with my experiences, with my story, with every connection I've made, I am able to support and come alongside women from all over the world to help them create their own success story...

To create their own high ticket, sold out courses...

It's my mission and my purpose to remove a lot of the nonsense and the thought of feeling stuck out of your life, so you can recharge your life...

So you can avoid the same mistakes that I've made and to show you opportunities and shortcuts that took me years to discover...

But this is not a get rich quick scheme...

It's not a walk in the park...

No woman who has been destined for greatness has it easy...

If it was just going to be a walk in the park, it wouldn't be worth it. Sometimes it's going to be fun and other times it's going to feel like a hot mess...

At the end of the day, I need you to know that you're not going to build your business and change your life alone. I will support you every step of the way, but you have to meet me halfway. I am so excited for what lies ahead and I can't wait to start this adventure with you.

As a member of this membership program, your life has the power to change like never before.

How does it feel to know that this is the moment everything changes? The moment you move towards that dream of yours with confidence, commitment and know-how to make it happen.

It's time to have faith and believe in the possibility that this is your season. You're going to be challenged to follow through and stick this out until the very end.

Take this time and space to unravel your current beliefs, bring to life the vision you had sitting on top of a shelf and give yourself permission to let the next season of your life be "ALL ABOUT ME!"

It's my greatest honor that you've chosen me to help you bring your dreams to life.

Are you ready to knock this out the park?

Yes or Yes?!?

Grab a cup of hot water and lemon or a chai tea latte and let me explain how this whole Activation Inner Circle journey is going to play out. Once you're done reading about what we're covering each week, take the time to watch the Welcome Video then introduce yourself in the Facebook group. Be yourself... because there is nobody who can do you better than you can do yourself. Be honest and transparent. This inner circle is not a place for judgment, it's a place to be open so I can fully support you along the way.

Buckle up, sis... and get ready for a long awaited, highly anticipated ride of your life.

Yours for Breaking Barriers,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Tracy". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

The 5 Phases of the Activation Inner Circle

Ok lady, inside this Welcome Booklet, I'm going to take you through the 6 Phases of The Activation Inner Circle, so you can see everything you have access to inside this fabulous program.

There is SO much good stuff inside, it can be overwhelming when you look at it all laid out. But here's the thing: I've created the Activation Inner Circle to give you every thing you might need to build a beautiful business...

But that's not to say you have to do everything inside the program.

It's totally up to you... trust me I know that every woman learns differently, so I have done my best to meet everyone's needs.

Decide what works best for you - whether you jump all the way in and tackle everything I give you, or whether you take time to master one thing at a time... or maybe somewhere in the middle.

Just know that everything you need is literally at your doorstep as an Activation Inner Circle member. So let's jump into the 5 Phases of the program - Training, Support, Facebook, Mindset and Events - so you can get your head around everything you have access to!

Phase 1: Training

The first phase of this inner circle program is the top-notch training you receive, with click-by-click, tried and tested expert strategies that are designed to help you fast-track your business success.

If you are an annual member, you would have received a beautiful physical welcome box straight to your doorstep. If you are a monthly member, be sure to swing by the Welcome tab to grab everything you need to get started.

There is so much important information inside the Welcome section...

But also there's so much expert training as well that has been created to set you up for success and get you to the manifestation of your dreams even faster!

That's why I am so blessed that you're here and how important it is that you've taken this first step.

I want you to take about an hour or so to prepare to get Activated.

So, that means training your brain to be focused (you know, turning off your favorite housewives show, cutting your phone conversations short, getting someone to watch the kids, and cutting out all the distractions), and committing to an hour or two to see all that I have for you inside the Welcome section.

Your life will never be the same, I promise.

So first things first, I want you to download or pull out your Getting Started Card and complete your Activation Intro.

In the welcome section, you will have:

- Welcome Booklet
- Your Guide to Slaying Your Goals Booklet which will show you simple, powerful, and fun ways to achieve your goals like a boss...
- Your 30-Day Gameplan to help you start your Activation journey like a boss...
- And lastly, an Activation Manifesto to remind you of why you started this journey to grow your own bankable business in the first place.
- I've also included 2 bonus training books for you to read when you get a second: The 6-Step "She's Gone Viral" Facebook Ad Blueprint which is my favorite Facebook strategy that harnesses the power of FREE traffic secrets...
- The next bonus is my Vision Manifesto Guide which will take you behind the scenes on how to flip things around so you can be in total alignment to make incredible things happen.

That's your welcome kit in a nutshell, and remember it's all yours!

So decide on when you want to have your Activation Afternoon so you can map this all out.

You will also have access to one module in a select course from My Extensive Library Of Online Courses Inside The Activation Inner Circle every month.

Right now, you'll already have one of these courses unlocked in your portal, the first being the Mindset Lab. I want you to start on that after you go through your Activation Intro and everything in the welcome section.

Ongoing, you are going to get completely free access to the first module in any select course. If I were to break it down, the cost for one module is nearly $297, but it's all yours to test drive!

Each mindset lab and first module should take between four to six weeks to complete, which is why we release only one of each per month... (yes, you could knock it all out in one week, but life is life and sometimes you gotta participate in it outside of building your business, right?)

Here's the thing: I'm sure you've read a book before and then picked up another one and then just kept reading and reading and never got anything done. We're not here to create a community of Information Seekers.

I want Information Seekers inside this Inner Circle, right?!

It's not about collecting information, it's about implementing what I teach you so you can see transformation and get results.

Every course we unlock is scaffolding so the training usually builds upon the previous one we unlock to you.

These courses are an amazing way for you to go deep on subjects that you want more insight on...

There's courses on topics everywhere from course creation, to sales, having a millionaire mindset, where to find clients, how to build your tribe, money management, social media advertising, to finding and narrowing down your bankable gift and niche.

You'll find all the details of these courses in your Activation Inner Circle portal when they are released and as I will do my part to stay cutting edge and innovative to create new courses.

Again, as a member of The Activation Inner Circle you will get access to the first module of those courses as well, once a month, complimentary, for the lifetime of your membership inside The Activation Inner Circle.

Pretty amazing, right?!

A Monthly Doing Kit Sent Straight To Your Door

Inner Circle Members will have their monthly Activation Kits sent straight to their Door.

Monthly members will receive theirs into their email inbox every month. Inside your Activation Kit each month, you'll receive TWO things:

1. A Backstage Pass Guide (the gold book)
2. A Companion Guide (the little black book)

This is going to be what you work on each month: the one objective I want you to master so you stay cutting edge, quickly grow, and remain accountable.

Your Backstage Pass guide is an in-depth review of one critical strategy that I've applied in my business that got me outstanding results.

These strategies are specifically designed for coaches, consultants, influencers, and professional service businesses and are tried and tested by industry experts.

I walk you through how I did what I did, the structure and tools that I put in place, the mistakes I made, and the BIG wins.

Plus, we'll share final numbers, if it was bankable – how much I spent and how much income the strategy generated...

Or how much I lost...

Yup... I don't always get it right each time?! ;-)

Sometimes I have to get back in the lab and tweak things with my team until I get it right.

I give you a backstage pass into how I launched the strategy and insight that I would only share with my closest business partners and now my special sisters inside The Activation Inner Circle!

Next, you'll be able to work on the Companion Guide each month in your Activation Kit.

Inside this guide, you'll be able to roll out the exact step-by-step processes that I did. You'll reflect... go deep... and use this guide to pencil in your thoughts and get to work.

This is where you will apply and execute.

So, the best way to use your Inner Circle Activation Kit each month is to start with your Backstage Pass Guide to get an overview of that month's strategy and then knock out your Companion Guide Workbook.

Sound brilliant, right?!

So that's a snapshot of what you get inside the Training Phase - so much value, right?!

Remember, it's totally up to you on how much you get done monthly...

Your Activation Kits will always be there for you to work through and implement, but I don't want you to let perfectionism, doubt, fear, or waiting for the release of a particular training that you've been yearning to get your hands on before you start.

There's so much goodness packed into these kits. Take your time, as much time as you need. Step away from it... take a break when you need and then jump back in.

I want you to know that little steps equal BIG steps. Little progress is STILL progress.

Because I've been in your shoes before, I know that there will be times that you will feel overwhelmed.

I want you to know that I would not be where I am today if I didn't have this next Phase of the Activation Inner Circle at my disposal. This is one of my favorite perks of this membership program.

Phase 2: Support

I know firsthand how lonely this journey to finding and knowing how to excel at what you were born to be. I know what it's like to be surrounded with family and friends who don't understand what it's like to be a dreamer, even though they're the ones you want to share your wins and struggles with the most.

That's why I haven't created ME School as just a training platform to show you the skills and strategies you'll need to grow mentally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually...

You now have access to like-minded women who understand the joys and challenges of growing and discovering who they are and who they are meant to serve. I feel confident speaking on behalf of this community when I say: we've all got your back.

I encourage you to support one another on the hard days, and celebrate wins on the good days. Believe me we all understand what it's like to be where you're at and feel how you feel. That's why the support of your individual Facebook group is such a foundational pillar of The Activation Inner Circle. That's why I want to show you exactly what you've got access to within it...

So in those moments when all you want is to talk to someone who understands, you know where to go. The support that you will receive as an inner circle member truly is the pulse of this community. So, as long as you stay plugged into the course, throughout the program you'll get:

Live Activation Training Calls:

I love to connect with my community during live training sessions. So, twice a month, you're invited to join me in a 1 hour LIVE coaching call. This is where I brief you on golden nuggets when it comes to that month's BANKABLE strategy.

I'll be walking you through some pretty incredible expert secrets and will answer frequently asked questions that relate to that weeks module and companion guide.

If you've ever experienced one of my communities, you know that there's a lot of love in the room.

Can you imagine the power of all the gals in the inner circle joining forces to come together working on the same goal with one focus in mind each and every month?!

This is huge and I'm so excited about the potential this has for keeping you motivated, focused, and accountable as you complete your monthly Activation Kits.

I'll take you through an in-depth overview of what it takes to have your course up and running so you can impact lives.

You'll learn extensive insight, in a private Facebook group, on each week's topic and have an opportunity to chat live and have questions answered during the session.

Questions Hub:

Inside the portal, you'll notice we have a section for you to submit one question every week for me and my team to get back to you on! If you need some extra insight on anything, or you have a technical question or you'd like us to review what you've got going on, make sure you use this feature.

Here are the guidelines: You can only submit one question per week (with up to one attachment), so make sure it's spelled out well, and that you only submit one question month. Keep in mind that your question should be related to your Activation Kit.

Most of the FAQs will be answered in the Activation Kit. So be sure to complete the training, because most questions will be answered in there.

Click the Questions Hub button in the portal and ask away! Like I said, this is a community of women who want to get activated, so not only do you have my team and I to answer your questions in the live calls and hub, you'll also have access to...

The Inner Circle Facebook Group:

As an Activation Inner Circle Member you have access to a private Facebook Group. This Facebook group is a brilliant hub and the perfect place to ask for advice, seek feedback, and feel empowered along your journey. The caliber of the ladies in this group are truly inspiring!

Here's the link if you haven't joined yet:

www.facebook.com/groups/activationinnercircle/

Honestly, you're going to have such a blast and if you're hanging out in other groups at the moment, I encourage you to make the communities connected to me as your new home. Trust me, I know it's the place you'll be best served.

I've hand picked every gal and each of them are headed towards next-level success...

There aren't any egos, there aren't any attitudes, and there's no complaining or whining. This is just a group of fabulous, supportive women, who are filled with love taking serious action in their lives.

Each of you are humble but not afraid to celebrate when you do something amazing as your journey through to a new future.

So don't be afraid to connect in with them, share your wins, and seek advice, and develop lifelong relationships in this group.

There are some rules around the Facebook group though, to ensure that this is a safe, encouraging, and productive space...

Firstly, no selling.

Secondly, be respectful. We will gladly remove anyone who is shady. I don't usually have an issue with attitudes in any of my communities but if you say anything that's rude or harsh or thoughtless, I will have no choice but to give you the boot.

Number three... Also no complaining. Now this is one some people struggle with, but there is no problem without a solution. And if there is a solution, you don't have a problem.

I promise you right now if you think it's going to be easy, someone sold you a dream. There will be times when you will feel like quitting and giving up... but in those moments call on me as your support so that together we can find your strength so you can get back up again.

I don't mean to highlight this, but there are going to be times when it's tough.

This is not the spot to sing the blues. I need the energy and moment and vibe of this group to be high. When the energy is high, people are at their highest creativity level and ready to get things done.

I need this group to be an encouraging space...

A place for you to come and get inspiration.

A place to come and see what's possible and watch other people experience their wins and remember why you are working hard to do the same.

This doesn't mean there's not a place for sharing a crappy moment or sucky results as you embark upon this journey.

In my experience, it's best to connect personally online with other woman inside the program. I ask you to connect with one other woman that can be a shoulder to lean on, and someone you can share things with on the tough days. I've seen lots of besties find one another in my communities, so make the most of your time.

I'm so thrilled that inside this Facebook group, you and I get to connect with so many fabulous women. It's a true blessing.

So last but not least is the final phase of the Activation Inner Circle...

And honestly, one of my favorites 😊

Live Event Experiences:

Planning events is sorta something I can do in my sleep. As the owner of a former wedding and event company, I understand the power of the energy in a room when people come together to get things done...

I love the human touch...

I love laughing together, winning together, learning together, and fellowshiping together!

I love connecting with all the women in my community, but as the community is growing everyday, I have decided that I can only connect with women in my Activation Inner Circle face-to-face.

So, yes ma'am... that means you!

That's why as an Activation Inner Circle member, you'll get tickets to: The Activation Weekend Experiences.

These 2-day events are our opportunity to catch up in Africa and the US.

These are not just events... they are experiences jam packed action and getting things done!

These life transforming, inspiring and action-packed weekends will activate, recharge, and refresh you... leaving you with great anticipation and know-how when it comes to executing in your business...

These events include in-depth training on practical strategies you never knew were available to you. From mindset, course creation, automation, branding, marketing, traffic strategies, and so much more!

We'll work together, so bring your laptop as we work the room and make sure you're on the right track.

You'll be the first to know about the upcoming Activation Weekend Experiences in the portal and the Facebook Group. All you have to do is mark your calendars.

I am led by the Holy Spirit so we may have a pop up Activation Weekend anywhere in the world...

My goal is to provide these events absolutely free for Activation Inner Circle Members

I'll be giving complimentary tickets to every Activation Weekend as long as you're a member.

I truly feel blessed to be able to do this. It's important to me. All you have to do is RSVP and let me know if you can come.

This helps me to not anticipate your coming, spend money on all the goodness, food, and gifts I'll have for you and then you not show up.

Out of my own wallet, I pay for all expenses incurred from the Activation Weekend Experiences, including the venue, breakout rooms, binders, worksheets, printed material, guest speakers, sound/audio/visual, refreshments, décor - and all the costs of running these events!

I budget around $50K for these Weekend Experiences so it's going to be nothing less than spectacular. I do this because I honor each of you and I know that the power of coming together is an amazing opportunity for any member.

It's to celebrate your hard work and to love on you in person.

Trust me after you experience the first one... you'll never miss another one.

My only rule for the Activation Weekends...

Again, you have to commit. If you say “Yes, you’ll be there” then you have to honor your word. It’s okay to say “No, Tracy I can’t make it,” all you have to do is simply RSVP stating so.

It is my desire for everyone to attend and meet every woman from all over the world, face to face. I often make you RSVP with a small fee to confirm if you’re coming. As soon as you show up, the money is refunded back to you.

If you RSVP with a “yes”, I’m going to ask you to make a $47 deposit for your spot at the Weekend Experience. Then at the event, you’ll be receiving your $47 back :-)

No shows or late cancellations will forfeit their deposit.

Do you understand?

Again, if you attend, you’ll receive 100% of your money back in full!

But if you cancel within 2 weeks of the event or just don’t show up, you won’t get your deposit back.

In my world, I know there’s a lot going on, but I need to know that as a part of my Activation Inner Circle, you’re committed and when you say you’re going to do something and attend something, you will do what you say.

Do you feel what I’m saying?

If your yes is a yes and your no is a no, I will pay for your spot at the event and you won’t pay a dime.

You'll get to join me complimentary and will love every moment of the weekend!

But there is a fee for late cancellations and people that cancel within 2 weeks of the event due to change of mind, the weather, or a busy calendar.

Fair enough?

So once we drop the dates, RSVP with a yes or a no, and commit to you, your business and your future.

You deserve this, your business deserves this and it's truly a once in a lifetime opportunity that you have to take advantage of.

Plus, you and I get to share a toast as we cheers with a glass in celebration of so many great things during the weekend.

Don't get it twisted... we will handle all the business side too ;-)

At the 2-day Activation Weekend Experience, you will receive training on some of the most jaw dropping and bankable strategies and steps being applied to my business and of course and we'll be getting to work and implementing live at the event.

Aren't you getting excited?

We will have live Q&As, live on-stage coaching sessions, we'll throw you the mic so you can share challenges and ask and receive advice.

You'll see that we're here for you and every woman in the Activation Inner Circle. We will to equip you with the tools and resources you need to succeed.

We will set you free and activate you to become the best in your market.

I'll have some surprises for you all weekend long and I'm prepared to set you on fire and fuel you so you can keep winning!

As you can see, I've designed this to be something you'll never forget, right!?

So, yes ma'am, these live experiences come with your membership inside The Activation Inner Circle, and I AM SO BLESSED for you to join me! Looking forward to seeing you!

Wrap Up

Phew! That was a lot to take in.

Remember, it's not supposed to be overwhelming! Take things at your own pace, one day at a time, just as long as you're moving forward, right?!

If you don't love connecting online, be sure to do your Activation Kits and watch the live training at your convenience. If you miss the actual live calls and/or sessions, be sure to watch the replay.

Everything inside this program is designed to help you – a brilliant woman with SO much world-changing potential - to live the life you've always desired.

So, if at any point you're feeling overwhelmed, don't give up...

Remember that you got this. I'm in your corner and by your side to watch you grow.

So with that, it's my absolute pleasure and honor to welcome you inside The Activation Inner Circle!!!!!!

I can't wait to see your dreams come to life. Get ready to make some big decisions and experience even BIGGER wins!
